I'm an entrepreneur and corporate accounts professional with experience across retail operations, B2B client management, and business development. I took over as CEO of Scentborne Fragrances at 16 and now apply that same ownership mentality as a Corporate Assistant Accounts Manager at AT&T. I'm fluent in PC hardware, software diagnostics, and networking – known for taking ownership fast, delivering results, and communicating confidently at every level.

Employment History

Corporate Assistant Accounts Manager at AT&T

May 2026 – Present

Manage corporate client accounts, supported sales team operations for AT&T authorized retailer, overseeing customer acquisition campaigns, mentoring field representatives, and driving enrollment performance across assigned territories.

CEO at Scentborne

Jun 2022 – Feb 2026

Joined an independent curated fragrance retail brand in 2022 and assumed full ownership and directorial control at age 16. Managed all business operations including product sourcing, vendor relationships, inventory, direct consumer sales, and social media content creation. Conducted high-volume face-to-face retail sales through kiosk and direct channels before facilitating a full brand sale in 2026.
